

Washington, Sept. 6—Forecast for Arizona, fair Wednesday and Thursday.

BISBEE DAILY REVIEW

REGULAR MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

THE METAL MARKET.
New York, Sept. 7.—Silver, 56 3/4c; Mexican dollars, 45 1/4c. Copper, steady and unchanged.

VOL. VIII

BISBEE, ARIZONA, SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 10, 1904.

NO. 105

UNIVERSITY CLUB

THE REVIEW DAILY BY MAIL DURING THE CAMPAIGN—FROM SEPTEMBER 1 UNTIL NOVEMBER 15—FOR $1.00. SUBSCRIBE NOW.

POLITICIANS ARE AT HOT HEAT

THINGS MUCHLY WARMED UP IN BISBEE PRECINCT FOR TODAY'S PRIMARIES.

TIPS ON THE TICKETS

All Hands Are Out and Hustling for Their Favorites—Amount of Work Being Done Indicates a Red Hot Time at This Afternoon's Primaries. Advance Work is Heaviest in History of Precinct.

A warm bunch of politics heaved at local meetings yesterday. By noon today the outlook is favorable for more things doing among the enthusiastic Democratic forces of the city than ever before happened in the immediate neighborhood.

The prospect for still further breaking of past records today is excellent. Things are moving. Everybody with interest in Democratic politics is on the jump. The session at the polls this afternoon, when delegates will be chosen to the county convention, promises to be the warmest thing that has yet happened. Last night there was a lot of people on the streets with tickets eligible for voting today. Prominent among these, in fact representing the plates that are pretty sure to play up in the front positions this afternoon, were the following tickets, given as a straight tip one way or the other.

- J. S. TAYLOR
- S. J. FORD
- JOHN NOBILE
- H. JENNINGS
- J. J. BOWEN
- M. J. CUNNINGHAM
- A. AYWARD
- W. B. KELLY
- H. BARKDOLL
- W. AYWARD
- RICHARD ARNDT
- T. FEENEY
- J. HARRINGTON
- J. BRENDENSTOOL
- C. W. MOON
- JOHN HICKLEY
- A. FINNERTY
- GEO. DUNN
- M. HANNON
- JOE HUGHES
- W. FAHEY
- GEO. HUMM
- DAN DANIELSON
- A. SOWLE
- J. J. BOLEN
- TOM NOLAN
- F. RUFF
- B. GROVER
- S. GARRETT
- J. LETSON
- NELS B. OKESTROM
- BOB LYONS
- JACK MUNCH
- D. TWOMEY
- DAN HANKINS
- P. KELLY
- C. LOCKLING
- T. DEVINE
- DAN ROUDEBUSH
- C. A. BELL
- WM. CLARK
- S. A. FISHER
- JOS CHISHOLM
- CHAS. LOCKLING
- C. W. MOON
- S. A. GARRET
- CHAS. MALCOM
- GUS. HICKEY
- HARRY BARKDOLL
- THOS. WOODS
- GEO. WESTFIELD
- F. J. BAILEY
- C. A. McDONALD
- DAVE HASLER
- JOHN PERRY
- L. B. SROUFE
- GEORGE PORTER
- MIKE MEDIGOVICH
- HANK SNODGRASS
- AL. GIBSON
- GEO. HENNINGER
- JESSE JOHNS
- J. F. WILMOTH
- FRANK HAINES
- MILLIAM SHRIMSHER
- R. HUMPHREY
- JOHN NOBILE
- JACK GARDNER
- J. C. KRIEGBAUM
- CHAS. STACY
- WALTER HUBBARD
- W. N. EDWARDS
- S. M. BURR
- J. H. JAMES
- JOE HARRIS
- AL. PARKS
- GEO. NEIL
- NICK NOBILE
- P. J. McCULLOUGH
- ED. Mc DONALD
- JOHN HUGHES

Polls will be opened at Lowell and the fire house at 1 p. m.

JAPS ABANDON CHASE

Troops of General Oyama Tired Out and Quit Pursuit of General Kuropatkin's Army--Route to Mukden Was Over Terrible Roads.

Dispatches Say Over 50,000 Were Slain on Both Sides

12,000 WOUNDED PASSED IN MUKDEN HOSPITAL

There is still a lack of specific information regarding the exact situation in Manchuria. The Russian general staff, lacking details, is unable to speak authoritatively, while advices from Japanese sources are significantly lacking. It is established that the Russian army is safely at Mukden, and that the retreat was accomplished in good order, in spite of harassing Japanese, sudden roads, and the fact that Kuropatkin was hampered by more than 12,000 wounded. There is nothing to indicate the exact whereabouts of the Japanese armies. When last heard from Kuroki's forces were on the Russian left flank and steadily pushing forward, but Viceroy Alexieff reports that railway and telegraphic communication between Mukden and Harbin is uninterrupted.

BEAT OFF JAPANESE.

Kuropatkin Made Sturdy Stand That Turned Kuroki From Pursuit.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 9.—It seems to be definitely established that Field Marshal Oyama's tired troops abandoned on Wednesday the attempt to head off Gen. Kuropatkin, whose army has arrived safely at Mukden after a frightful experience in floundering through mud and mire over mountain roads. Some descriptions of the scenes along the line of retreat are almost incredible. They tell of how men lay down in the mud and slept in the drenching rain. It is evident that the last determined effort of the Japanese to bring Kuropatkin to bay was made on Tuesday, but the Russian commander-in-chief and two corps with artillery beat off the Japanese, while the remainder of the troops continued their march to Mukden. After that the Japanese could only hang on to the flanks and try to shell the retreating columns from the hills. The outposts are still in contact, but they are not even exchanging shots.

Details of the Russian losses is promised for Saturday, and it is awaited with intense interest. The general expectation is that the losses will approximate 20,000 as against 30,000 for the Japanese. The care of the wounded has taxed the hospitals to the utmost.

INDEFINITELY PROLONGED.

Are Hostilities Likely to Be—Liao Yang Strewn With Dead Bodies When Russians Left.

Mukden, Wednesday, Sept. 7, via Peking, Sept. 9.—A correspondent of the Associated Press has just returned to Mukden with the Russian rear guard after having accompanied the army the whole time since the battle of Liao Yang. He says the losses on both sides were enormous. As a moderate estimate he places them at 50,000. He confirms previous reports that the fighting at Liao Yang recalled in fierceness the sanguinary battles of the American Civil War. General Kuroki's flank movement east of the Russian position precipitated the retreat from Liao Yang. When the Russians left Liao Yang the town was strewn with corpses of the slain.

A Japanese army of forty thousand is reported to be west of Mukden, and it is considered likely, in view of the condition of the two armies, that hostilities may be indefinitely postponed unless the Japanese are able to push on and force the Russians to give battle.

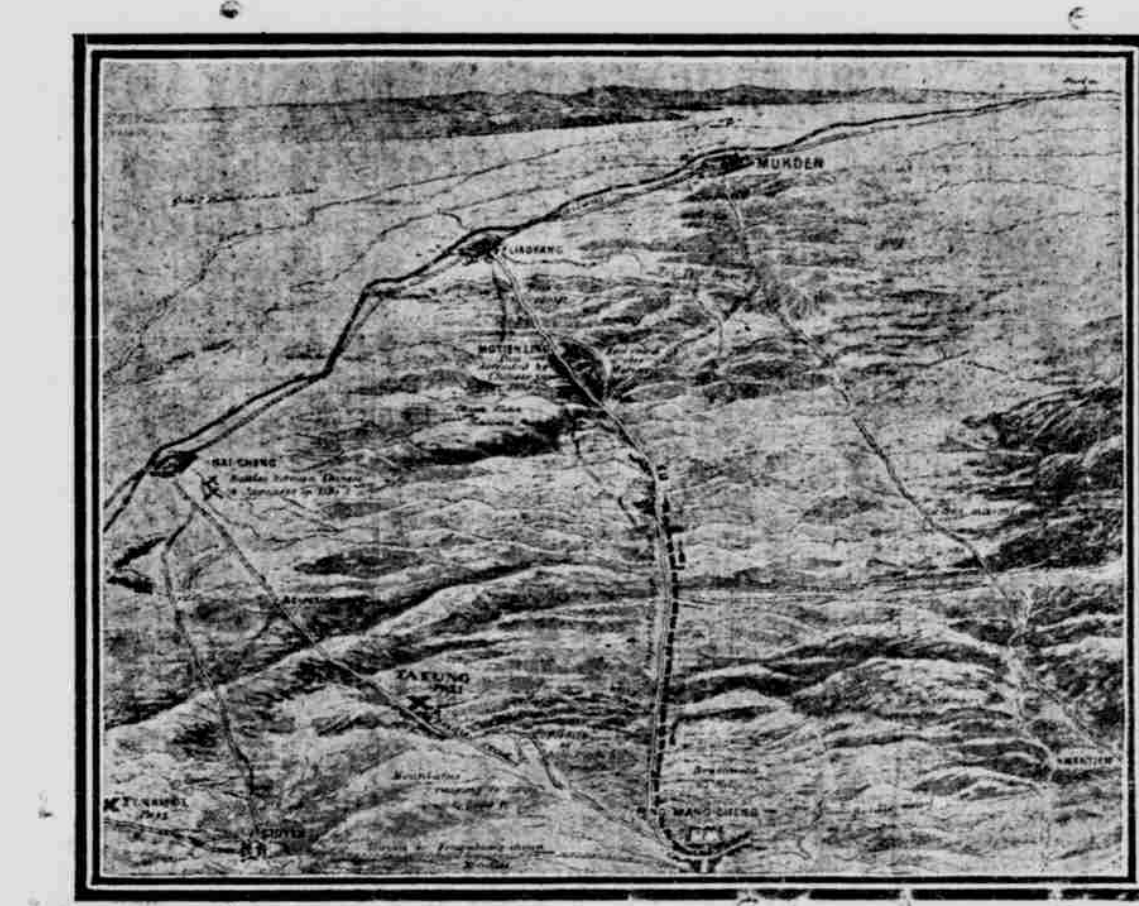

One correspondent says that 12,000 wounded had passed through the Mukden hospitals up to Monday, and only the most severe cases could be attended to by the nurses and surgeons.

HONORS EVEN AT LIAO YANG.

Says First Report Direct From Field—Most Terrific Engagement in History.

New York, Sept. 9.—The first accurate report given from the field of battle of the fighting at Liao Yang on August 30 has just reached here, having been delayed in transmission by the necessity for long mounted messenger service through the various army outposts and open country into Korea. The following is the Associated Press cable:

Field Headquarters of General Kuroki, Aug. 30, via Fusan, Korea.—The artillery battle which thundered before

Route Over Which They Are Fighting

Liao Yang today from early morning until darkness fell and hid for from foe, was certainly one of the most stupendous and spectacular in history.

The combined armies of the Japanese, with the exception of a part of the force under General Kuroki, concentrated their batteries against the Russian lines under Gen. Kuropatkin. Several hundred guns, probably not less than three hundred upon each side, were worked incessantly for twelve hours from the opening of the engagement. Even after nightfall, and in the driving storm of wind and rain that swept over the field of battle, the conflict did not cease entirely, for Russian shells are tonight bursting over the hills before the Japanese positions.

It was not alone the number of guns in action, but their unceasing, rapid fire that made the conflict of today remarkable.

For several hours the cannonading averaged sixty shots a minute, and the rate seldom fell below twenty shots a minute. From a high mountain, almost over the nearest Russian batteries, the foreign attaches and newspaper correspondents with General Kuroki's army had a view of the fighting which probably could not have been surpassed. Looking down upon so vast a scene of operations, with so many batteries participating, it was often impossible to discern the details of positions occupied or what units were opposed to each other. In some places the Russian guns appeared to be arranged in tiers, two or three batteries being placed one above the other. The whole Russian front was bordered with twinkling lights, this being the flashes from their guns.

Much of the artillery was in skillfully covered positions, and absolutely smokeless powder was used. Clusters of white shrapnel smoke broke out fitfully around some of the Japanese positions in the mountains, and then drifted slowly away, showing that often two or three batteries upon either side were pitted against one another.

Throughout the day the positions of the opposing forces were but little changed, and at nightfall the honors appeared to be even.

ESCAPING CONVICT ROBS.

Columbus, Sept. 9.—George Campbell, a convict in the Ohio Penitentiary serving five years for burglary, escaped last night, and before leaving robbed the deputy warden in charge of $25. Several girls had called to see him, and one, a waitress, has disappeared.

They Go Against The Real Thing

TROUPE OF FEMALE BULL FIGHTERS TRAVEL IN STYLE, AND ARE EXPERTS AT THE BUSINESS.

Party Was Center of Interest At the Copper Queen Hotel Yesterday—The Leading Female Matador Talks for Publication.

A group at the Copper Queen Hotel yesterday attracted more than usual attention. It was the lady troupe of bull fighters, managed by Senor Jose C. Beltrán, who have traveled all over the Republic of Mexico during the past two years, and prior to that gave exhibitions in Spain, France and Portugal.

The party was composed of Emilia Herrera, first matador; Isabel Gorro, Josefa Maia, Elira Herrero, Louisa Comas, Ramon Bos, Jose Turlet.

Basileas, Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand, the party was accompanied to Bisbee by Senor F. Parquette, a prominent merchant at Agua Prieta.

At 10 o'clock the troupe paraded through the streets of Bisbee, and returned to the Copper Queen Hotel for luncheon. This troupe of female bull fighters has a world wide reputation. They have traveled extensively, and have given exhibitions before the kings and queens of Europe. This troupe not only performs all the difficult feats of the male bull fighters, but even excel the men in some of their feats of daring. Two matadors, the women who finally put the bull to death, are with the troupe, and their work in this line is said to be expert. The troupe will give an exhibition at Douglas on Sunday next, and the E. P. & S. W. will give an extension rate of one dollar, the return train leaving Douglas at 5 p. m., and departing from Bisbee at 9:30 a. m.

A Review reporter sought an interview with the "leading lady," as we would call her on this side of the line, through the kindness of Senor Bertrand as interpreter.

She proved to be Sonorita Amelia Herrera, a small, black-eyed native of Spain, with a determined look in her face, and boasts of having slain more than two hundred vicious bulls since her advent into the bull ring. She made her first appearance at Barcelona, Spain, in the year 1896, and for seven years toured through the principal countries of Europe, but appearing more often in Spain, France and Portugal. Amelia stands at the head of her profession, and is proud of it. This small woman can run a bull through the heart without batting an eye-lash, and bears the scars on her face of many a hard fought battle. About a year ago she came to Mexico, and has since been in this country under the management of Senor Bertrand.

When urged to tell how she picked the hazardous profession of bull fighting, Amelia shrugged her shoulders, and through her interpreter said: "Since I was a little girl I attended the bull fights in Barcelona, and from the first there was a growing desire in me to show that a woman could do the trick as well as a man. After each performance I used to linger about the ring, and finally I was permitted by the management to make my first appearance. It was some time before I attempted to slay a bull in public, but at my first appearance as a professional matador, I only used one thrust, and my reputation as a professional was assured."

Amelia admitted, demurely, that she was single, and when the reporter asked if she would leave the ring if she should find a suitable husband, this was her answer:

"Well, if the fellow had plenty of money, I might." Evidently Amelia has an eye to business.

The troupe consists of five women and two men assistants, who stand ready to render timely assistance if necessary. The ladies were attired in short skirts, brightly colored jackets, with silver trimmings, after the kind worn by men in the ring, and altogether were an interesting and somewhat amusing picture at the Copper Queen Hotel yesterday.

MOUNT VESUVIUS ACTIVE.

Naples, Sept. 9.—Mount Vesuvius is again in activity. Flames, ashes and stones are rising from it to a considerable height and a wide stream of lava is issuing from the crater.

FOREST FIRES IN CALIFORNIA WORKING HAVOC TO COUNTRY.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Forest fires are doing great damage in several sections of California, particularly in Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Many houses have been destroyed, the loss reaching $100,000. In Marion county the fire has burned over the slopes of Mount Tamalpais, and now threatens the mountain Tamalpais Scenic Railway and the timber in adjacent canyons.

PROTECTION IS NEAR TO HAND

ALDERMAN INTIMATES THAT MATTERS ARE NEARING DEFINITE END.

ACCORDING TO SOWLES

Joe Barch Employed to Supervise Youngblood Hill Road Improvement, City Attorney Instructed to Fix Way for Stairs to O. K. Street.

At the special meeting of the Council last night, Alderman Sowles strongly intimated, near the close of the session, that there would very shortly be forthcoming the outline of a definite arrangement between the city and the Copper Queen company relative to adequate fire protection for the town. This announcement followed the request by Alderman Ord that steps be taken to abolish the unsightly fire hydrant in front of the Miner saloon, near the E. P. & S. W. depot. In putting this matter Alderman Ord evinced a phenomena entirely new, viz, the expression by somebody of care for the appearance of the city as a beauty spot on the map.

The purpose of the special meeting was to let the contract for the work necessary to establish the new road to Youngblood Hill. After some discussion it was decided to put the work in charge of Joseph Barch, under supervision of Street Commissioner Kreisbaum. Mr. Barch is to draw $3.50 per day for his services. He will work a chain gang from the city prison on the improvements and such additional help as the street committee and the commissioner may determine that he needs.

Before adjourning to Monday evening at 4 o'clock, when the report of the street committee, the fire protection committee and a couple of others will be in order, the Council instructed Attorney Sutter to finish arrangements with Mr. Muhelm for a deed to a five-foot strip covering the ground from Brewery Gulch to the foot of O. K. Avenue. When this deed is gratuitously given the city will proceed to erect a much needed flight of durable iron steps from the Gulch up to the O. K. bunch of geography.

Harrington is Not In The Running

PUTS AT REST IDLE RUMORS WHICH WERE IN CIRCULATION YESTERDAY.

Under No Condition Is He a Candidate for Sheriff, and States That He Would Not Accept Nomination If Tendered Him.

James Harrington was a caller at the Review office on yesterday, and stated that he desired the announcement made through the Review that under no consideration would he be a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, neither would he accept the nomination if tendered him.

Mr. Harrington desired the statement published for the reason that certain rumors had been put in circulation that he was a candidate against Stewart Hunt. On the contrary, Mr. Harrington stated that Mr. Hunt was his choice for sheriff, and that if elected a delegate to the convention would vote for Stewart Hunt for sheriff first, last and all the time.

This plain statement by Mr. Harrington should put at rest any rumors that may be in circulation today.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

Washburn, Wis., Sept.—A severe rain and wind storm today did great damage to property in this vicinity, nearly two and a half inches of rain fell in less than eight hours.

FARMERS FIX PRICE OF WHEAT.

Indianapolis, Sept. 9.—The Farmers' Alliance today fixed the price for the season's wheat at $1.04.

LOCKED TREASURER IN VAULT AND MADE GOOD ESCAPE.

youmctwv shrdl cmfw bTHREHt $
Pomeroy, Ohio, Sept. 9.—
Two youthful strangers entered the county treasurer's office here today and covering Treasurer Charles with revolvers, secured $14,000, locked the treasurer in the vault and made their escape. Charles was locked in the vault nearly three hours before he was found and released.